

Legislation

- “Parenting Orders”- The concept of parenting replaces the concept of custody.
- Are you aware of the changes to the Divorce Act?
- Which act applies to you - FOIPPA, PIPA, HIA?
- What are the minor changes to Education Act (previously the School Act)?
- What is New Partnership Trade Agreement?
- When to report to Alberta Child and Family Services?

The above questions are related to the legislations/statutes that affect psychologists, so one must become familiar and be aware of them. The College of Alberta Psychologists has all the regulatory documents on their website.

Reference:

College of Alberta Psychologists (2022). Jurisprudence: Legislation naming or affecting Psychologists in Alberta (2022). Retrieved from: <https://www.cap.ab.ca/resources-regulatory-information>

Disclaimer

The information provided in this document is intended to provide general guidance to members in identifying and addressing issues, increasing self-efficacy and improve practice in the field of psychology. This document is not exhaustive and may not contain all legislation or information required to make an ethically informed decision. Members are advised that this document provided by the PAA Professional Guidance Program (PGP) is not legal or clinical advice. For any legal advice, consult your liability insurance or a lawyer who specializes in psychological / health service practice. For financial or accounting advice, consult your accountant or auditor or a management accountant who specializes in Alberta health service provision.

