Nomination for the PAA
John G. Paterson Media Award

The Psychologists' Association of Alberta (PAA) invites nominations* for the PAA John G. Paterson Media Award. This non-monetary award is presented to an individual in recognition of significant media contributions that have advanced the public knowledge and profession of psychology during the previous two-year period.

As part of the selection process, the PAA Awards Adjudications Committee evaluates all nominations received. The evaluation will be based upon a maximum 500-word letter that should address one or more of the following criteria statements:

- How the nominee has exceptionally contributed to portraying psychological knowledge to the public, knowledge information and ideal related to or in promotion of psychology.
- How the nominee has furthered the advancement of the profession of psychology with the public through their contribution(s).
- How the nominee has conveyed psychological knowledge through the media of radio, television, print, or other technology such as Social Media, Podcasts, and online videos.

The objective of these criteria is to guide the nominator in drafting a comprehensive and compelling nomination that showcases the nominee's achievements, contributions, and impact on their field or community.
