Nomination for the PAA
Excellence in Clinical Supervision Award

The Psychologists' Association of Alberta (PAA) invites nominations for the Excellence in Clinical Supervision Award. This non-monetary award is presented to an individual whose performance in supervising one or more individuals in any practice area of applied and/or practical supervision of clinical/counseling internship, practicum, or provisional psychologists, that is deemed exemplary during the previous two-year period. This award is not for research supervision (for that, please see the PAA Teaching Award).

Nominees and nominators must be Alberta registered psychologists who are, or are not, members of PAA. Nominators may be professional colleagues, former/current students or supervisees of the nominee, or individuals familiar with the nominee's practice. As part of the selection process, the PAA Awards Committee evaluates all nominations received. The evaluation will be based upon a maximum 500-word letter that should address one or more of the following criteria:

- Explain the nominee's availability for consultation, training, and emergencies.
- Explain the nominee's ability to align with: the supervisee's needs and personal approach.
- Explain the nominee's ability to offer diverse and appropriate options for various assessments/treatment/ethical situations.
- Explain the nominee's knowledge in terms of psychological theory, techniques, approaches, and practical suggestions.
- Explain the nominee's ability to provide creative/flexible approaches to the delivery of supervision.
- Explain the nominee's ability to provide constructive feedback that is related to both corrective/critical appraisal and validation of good student practice.
- Explain the specific criteria used to nominate this individual, the approximate number of hours devoted to supervising, and the methods of supervision employed.
- Other contributions

These criteria are to guide the nominator in drafting a comprehensive and compelling nomination that showcases the nominee's achievements, contributions, and impact on their field or community.
