

Juanita Chambers Excellence in Community Service Award Form

The Psychologists' Association of Alberta (PAA) invites nominations* for the Juanita Chambers Excellence in Community Service Award. This non-monetary award is presented to an individual in recognition of important work in advancing psychological health, well-being, and quality of life for Albertans through service to the community or advocacy.

As part of the selection process, the PAA Awards Adjudications Committee evaluates all nominations received. The evaluation will be based upon a maximum 750-word letter that should address one or more of the following criteria statements:

- Contributes to the quality of life in the community through volunteer work.
- Advocates for improved quality of life for Albertans.
- Educates the community about the value of psychological health and advocates for those in the community who need support and/or community resources to improve their quality of life.
- Is a positive role model for others, contributes to the psychological health and well-being of the community.
- Contributes to enhancing the public perception of psychologists through community service.
- Explain how the nominee promotes social justice issues.

The objective of these criteria is to guide the nominator in drafting a comprehensive and compelling nomination that showcases the nominee's achievements, contributions, and impact on their field or community.
